Summary

🚀 Agentic AI Engineer & Next.js Web Developer | Builder of Intelligent Systems and Seamless Experiences

As a passionate Agentic AI Engineer and skilled Web Developer, I specialize in crafting innovative solutions powered by state-of-the-art technologies. My expertise spans Generative AI, LangChain, RAG systems, and modern web technologies like Next.js and Tailwind CSS, enabling me to build dynamic, intelligent, and visually stunning applications.

Key Accomplishments

🌟 Built intelligent chatbots according to your business requirements using AI Frameworks like CREWAI, LangGraph with LLMs.

🔧 Developed a cutting-edge RAG system combining LangChain and Google Generative AI embeddings for enhanced question-answering capabilities.

🖥️ Delivered impactful web projects such as donate-app, using Next.js and Tailwind CSS to create seamless user experiences.

🌐 Created responsive and interactive websites optimized for performance, accessibility, and scalability, ensuring modern and user-focused designs.

Currently pursuing a Certified Cloud Applied Generative AI Engineer program, I aim to merge creativity with technology to build impactful solutions that redefine possibilities in both AI and web development.

Let's connect and innovate together at the intersection of AI and web development in this transformative digital era!
